As a candidate for the New Mexico Legislature, my desire to serve comes from a deep commitment to the people, families, and communities of our state. As a healthcare provider, small business owner, and employer, I have seen firsthand both the challenges facing New Mexicans and the opportunities we have to build a stronger future. I believe a thriving economy is essential to creating jobs, supporting families, and improving quality of life. New Mexico needs policies that encourage entrepreneurship, reduce unnecessary barriers for businesses, strengthen our workforce, and help employers succeed. My experience building healthcare organizations has shown me the importance of responsible leadership, fiscal accountability, and investing in people. I want to bring a practical, solutions-focused approach to the Legislature, one that values collaboration, listens to employers and communities, and works to create an environment where businesses can grow and New Mexicans can prosper. My goal is simple: to help build a safer, healthier, and more opportunity-filled New Mexico for future generations.
